Instructor Biography

MARVIN KALA'IKI GRINO attended his first SITH® class in 1998 presented by Dr. Ihaleakala Hew Len and has since helped staff, coordinate and instruct Basic I, Business Ho'oponopono and Health Ho'oponopono classes in the United States, Japan, Korea, Bulgaria and Peru. Marvin also taught Basic I and Basic II ONLINE Classes in the United States and Argentina. His difficult experiences with relationships, health, work and finances, and the stress caused by these experiences prompted him to "explore" the SITH® process introduced to him by his best friend. Looking back now, he doesn't know how he got out of those situations. Working only on himself, Marvin was able to experience being "healed" and effect the "change" in himself and his family. He applies the cleaning process every moment and watches the SITH® process work. Using SITH® enabled him to experience Peace within, able to let go of his confusion, worries, fear, stress, and uncertainties. It also allows him to forge a deeper and more meaningful relationships with his spouse and family. Furthermore, it allows him to deeply appreciate everything around him, his family, friends, co-workers, nature and all of Divinity's creations.

JEAN NAKASATO was first introduced to SITH® in 1982 when Mornah Nalamaku Simeona was inspired to go to the island of Maui, Hawaii to teach a Basic I class "Looking only at self" and taking action to be responsible to "clean self" no matter what happens are the greatest gifts she learned from Mornah Simeona. Over a span of 40 years+ of cleaning, Jean continues to experience life's challenges spiritually, mentally and physically. Through it all, she says, Peace within self can emerge if you just stick to "cleaning self." She is eternally grateful to Divinity and Mornah Nalamaku Simeona for these timeless gifts as we all become a salvation to one another. Jean has taught IN PERSON classes in Hawaii, Taiwan, Japan, Brazil, and China; ONLINE classes that include the USA, Asia, South America, Europe, and India and ONLINE/IN PERSON classes in Asia.
